What melodies or songs divine, Could render perfect, dulcet, whole, The random music of my soul? (He sighs and sits on a bank of moss and hides his face in his hands.) Spring s dawn-pulse and an unborn light, Soul s yearning through the dark, long night, The finger-tips of unknown gods Are on my brow! (Festive and Revel tip-toe forth from behind the trees. They glide to and fro in front of Philero, singing gently, and scattering roses to right and left. Philero glances up suddenly.) Philero. A Miracle! Nay, do I dream? What sprites, what spirits of the air are these? They dance, they sing, and round them fling Red roses at the trees! Revel (dancing and singing to soft music). Salt-charm, sea-music, pearls and foam, An Isle of Roses for my home. An Isle...
