Acting upon Dr. Smocks report, and information from adjoining counties, a meeting was called, and, after careful consideration, the following was issued: QUARANTINE PROCLAMATION. State Board of Health, Bowling Green, Ky. , July 21, 1898. Whereas, Official information has come to this Board that smallpox is prevailing as an epidemic in Jackson county, in this state; and, Whereas, After due notice and repeated urging from this and the County Board of Health, the authorities of said county have persistently failed and refused to take any steps to prevent the spread of this highly dangerous and contagious disease within said county, or to adjoining counties, thus endangering the health, lives and commercial interests of the entire state: Now, therefore, be it known, That...
