It is not enough that to these it adds literature that refreshes and amuses, poetry that pleases, and art that elevates. The librarian is not through when to these she adds work with children, with schools, with women s clubs. Every one of these features of library work is important, is indispensable, and must be present in every library. We must remember that the world, politically, economically and socially is traveling at a (tremendous rate. Methods of government, of business, of industries, of education, have changed essentially during even the last ten years. Political parties are striving to accomplish different things by different means. Legislators are invoking new devices to regulate human affairs. The universities, particularly in all branches of learning relating to the humanities, are occupying a field almost unknown a few years since. With the world of which it is a part moving at this gait, the library must move with it or drop behind. The chances are that if a library is being conducted as it was ten years ago, with the same methods, and the same material, it is at least nine years behind the times. As a part of this progress has come the growth of an appreciation of every individuals duty to society. Under this conception, no man is at liberty to ignore the fact that he is responsible for the welfare of those with...
