The coach gathered his players closer for a critical final-seconds huddle. Okay, Adams, you head down the field for a reception and, Parker, you cross to the right for a hand-off. Russell, to win this game you or one of these guys has to get that ball in the endzone. Now, go make it happen! The players looked confused. Why didn't the coach call a real play? One that called them to work together as one cohesive team? The coach's players will lose the game if they act as individuals. A marriage will fail if both people involved don't bring their different backgrounds, personalities and experiences together to form one cohesive team. Bob and Yvonne Turnbull have brought their extensive marriage seminar experience to create TeamMates, a guide to forming the building blocks of a winning marriage. Team building in varied aspects of the husband-wife relationship is the central focus of TeamMates, featuring topics such as team building God's Way through communication, through problem solving, with common goals and to grow...
