Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The Glow of a Cross and Twelve Beams of Light by D. A. Hayes is a religious rendering of a man s experiences and his relationship with the Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit. This journey began with a marvelous and mystical vision he experienced in broad daylight. He voices spiritual prose to express his initial disbelief at its existence and then to give thanks as he accepts it as a message from the Divine to show his love and support of His children. He tells us that Attitude and Altitude are facts of life, which can be used to rise and soar above strife, harassment, and the attempts of others to hold us down. The Author was born in Cleveland, Ohio, during the snowstorm of 1950, which was the deepest in Ohio s history at that time. Nearly the entire state had over 30 inches and most communities in the eastern half of Ohio measured 2 to 3 feet of snow during this storm. As the storm strengthened, winds increased to over 40 MPH and a severe cold wave swept the state, dropping temperatures to near zero, late in the day. Then, on June 8, 1953, a killer lightning storm and tornado struck the area. Out of nowhere there was an enormous bright flash and a loud explosion, and that was when the author was struck by lightning. On the morning of July 20, 2012, the author saw the glowing of a cross and twelve beams of light. That very same day/night of the Aurora Century 16 Theater shootings happened. That very same night he sees and captures the image of another cross. Then, during...
