HarperCollins, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 170 x 107 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Even burglars fall in love, and in this case, it s Bernie doing the falling, with the lovely and alluring Ilona. Night after night, sharing popcorn in the flickering shadow of a Bogie movie, Bernie finds himself tongue-tied - sometimes literally. It would appear Ilona s now doing all the stealing. Well, not really. Bernie s been approached by the oddly named Hugo Candlemas to pilfer a posh East Side apartment, make off with a portfolio and collect a fast, easy sum. A reasonable enough request for a trained burglar, sure, but just when things are going well, things turn bad. Bernie s nocturnal visit is interrupted, and he ends up going home empty-handed. If this wasn t bad enough, Hugo Candlemas turns up missing, and Ray Kirschmann, New York City detective-extraordinaire, comes looking for answers. A body has been found at Candlemas s residence, and there s evidence linking Bernie to the crime. For once, though, Kirschmann doesn t think Bernie s the guilty party. But he does want his help.
